With Your Support!

“Let my dreams fly” Afghan Girls Deserve to Learn!

“I am an Afghan girl with countless obstacles ahead, but full of dreams to fulfill. But the most important thing for success is not losing hope, and now you are my hope. Please! Let my dreams fly and give me this opportunity to use all my skills to make Afghanistan and the world a better place.”

“Life has no limitations except the one you make. I had a strong interest in engineering. During school, I joined a group of girls in the field and we worked together. Unfortunately with the arrival of the Taliban, our group was disbanded, and my dreams and goals in this field were shattered. However, I did not give up.”

ASRF teams are working around the world, bringing people out of danger!
Your donations are working!!!

*Our programs are growing fast and the need is urgent.
BUT... we need to stay under the radar while gaining supporters.*
